Product Description

The ATAP is a purpose-built access platform for industrial applications where tank top access is necessary. Powered by a simple winch mechanism, the ATAP offers a range of platform heights of between 2.9 - 4.4m and can be easily deployed by one person. ATAP is suitable for use with rigid tankers, trailer tanks, and most ISO containers and is designed to ensure the operator is safe and secure whilst climbing onto the tanker and working within the safety cage. The platform is weighted with ballast to enable access in situations where it is not possible to place the base chassis below. Please ask about the range of options including guardrail, which is customizable to your exact requirements.
