Product Description

Little Giant Fuel Tank™ vertical paint tray is specially designed to fit the Little Giant Select Step, and any Little Giant multi-use ladder. The Fuel Tank holds a full gallon of paint and sports a convenient carrying handle and a stand-alone base to prevent tipping if you decide to use it as a paint bucket. Just fill the Fuel Tank vertical paint tray to the right level, dip your roller in the paint, run it over the moulded ridges, and paint. The Fuel Tank allows you to work with significantly more paint, so the days of continuous filling and spilling with your traditional paint roller tray are in the past. a handy magnetized paint roller and brush holder keeps your tools out of your paint, and your paint off your floor.

Features

- Use as a paint or window wash bucket
- Magnetic sides to stop your brushes falling into paint
- Special polymer surface enables easy paint removal
- Works with the Little Giant SelectStep
